

Also regards to Milt Ray 7 Aug 1964

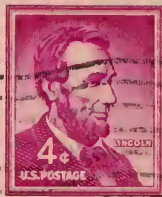

ST. JOSEPHS MISSION, Mescalero, New Mexico.
Built as a memorial to men lost in World War I it stands overlooking the reservation. The Apache tribe was feared in the early days because of the notorious Geronimo. The Indians living on this reservation are the Mescalero branch of the Apache people.

Color Photo by Gene Aiken

Arrived Tuesday - Not all the way except for the car - never here. Some goes to Georgia for a month. Hope you had a nice time in W. Saw you leaving - looked real chee - Get me where if you get the little table - Don't know whether I sent his church or not - Keep well - Love from me - Ray

Published by F. J. Schaaf, Alamogordo, New Mexico

34048

POST CARD

Address

Mrs. Elizabeth (M.) Jackson
26 Walnut Street
Leicester
New Hampshire
03431